

UTAH INDIANS

I. Manners and Customs of Utah Indians

- A. Their particular characteristics and how these Indians differ from others.
- B. The names of the tribes and their location in the state.
- C. The foods and agricultural methods of the Utah Indians:
 - 1. methods of hunting
 - 2. methods of preserving
 - 3. irrigation methods
 - 4. farm tools
 - 5. The tribes that had the better and poorer methods and why.
- D. The articles of clothing the different tribes used:
 - 1. where clothing was acquired
 - 2. how the apparel differed from tribe to tribe and season to season.
- E. The dwellings of the Indians:
 - 1. the types of houses the Indians had
 - 2. their methods of building and protecting themselves
- F. The industries of the Indians:
 - 1. industries were related to seasons and tribes
- G. The religion and tribal customs:
 - 1. where some of the customs and religions or religious beliefs were adopted
 - 2. life after death, custom

II. Utah Indian Chiefs, Their Importance to the Building of Utah

- A. Chief Washakie
 - 1. his dealings with the pioneers
 - 2. the attitude he had toward the settlers.
- B. Chief Sowiette
 - 1. his role in protecting the settlers
- C. Chief Kanosh
 - 1. his influence with the Indians
 - 2. how he helped to protect the settlers
- D. Chief Walker
 - 1. the great fear that resulted among the whites and Indians
 - 2. his many battles (Walker War)
- E. Chief Arapene or Arropine
 - 1. how his attitude changed after his brother's death
(Chief Walker)

Black Hawk